Welcome to Zenith Gallery's newest exhibit "Culture Cluster." What is our recipe for a Culture Cluster? Well, we've put together a distinguished and eclectic crew of some of our favorite artists, and added a dollop of new artists we're very excited to show you in honor of our 37th anniversary. The resulting collection presents a wide array of materials, including: wood, clay, pieced metal, found objects and lighting elements, mixed media and mesh, cast glass, photography, acrylic on panel, and more! Our artists are seasoned professionals and shining stars just appearing on the horizon. We've got a little bit of everything for you to taste: sardonic humor; a sweet and romantic dress made of tin tiles; a charmingly constructed female unicorn; a thought-provoking assemblage incorporating encaustic technique, found within a steel house; meditative vistas; the sky above; a quirky vegetable trio; a shimmering mesh panel, tumbling figures on polished wood; a voyeuristic glimpse; & tempestuous swirls of vivid color.

Come Enjoy our Culture Cluster!
